An ABSTRACT of His Majesty's Royal Charter, for erecting and promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. ---- To all Persons to whom these Presents shall come. ----- Forasmuch as we have received Information by the Petition of the Lord Primate, Lord Chancellor, Archbishops, Noblemen, Bishops, Judges, Gentry, and Clergy of Our Kingdom of Ireland, That in many Parts of the said Kingdom there are great Tracts of Land almost intirely inhabited by Papists, who are kept by their Clergy in great Ignorance of the true Religion, and bred up in great Disaffection to the Government: That the erecting of English Protestant Schools in those Places is absolutely necessary for their Conversion; that the English Parish Schools already established are not sufficient for that Purpose; nor can the Residence of the Parochial Clergy only, fully answer that End.

To the Intent therefore, that the Children of the Popish and other poor Natives of the said Kingdom, may be instructed in the English Tongue, and the Principles of true Religion and Loyalty, and that so good a Design may the more effectually be carried on; The Lord Lieutenant, and some of the chief Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the said Kingdom, are appointed Commissioners to execute the Purposes of this Charter, and have a Power to elect others in the room of their deceased Members, and are constituted a Corporation or Body Politick, by the Name of The Incorporated SOCIETY in Dublin, for promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland: And are capable to receive and enjoy in Fee, and in Perpetuity, any Mannors, Lands, Tenements, &c. the same not exceeding the Value of Two Thousand Pounds per Ann. and any Sum or Sums of Money, that shall be given them by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, &c. to be applied for the establishing and supporting English Protestant Schools in such Places of the Kingdom as they shall think proper.

The said Society is impowered to nominate and appoint School-masters and School-mistresses, to be approved and licensed by the Archbishops and Bishops respectively, to continue during the Pleasure of the said Society, who are to be supported by the Society, and provided with all Things necessary for the Instruction of the poor Children in the Principles of the Protestant Religion, Reading, Writing, and Arithmetick, as likewise with proper Books, and all necessary Materials fit for teaching them Husbandry, Housewifery, Trades, Manufactures, &c. in order to bring them up to Virtue, Labour, and Industry.

The Society is likewise impowered to nominate Persons to receive Subscriptions, Benefactions, &c. in any Part of his Majesty's Dominions, from all well disposed Persons.—The Society may elect and admit Subscribers (being Protestants) to be Members to assist in carrying on the Design aforesaid.

down, and to convey the Fruits of it to all interested ing Gentlemen.

THE Design of this Charter is so evidently calculated for the recovering the poor Natives of Ireland to a Spirit of Labour and Industry, and for delivering them from the blind Superstition, and destructive Principles of Popery, that Arguments cannot be wanting to recommend it to every one that has a Zeal for the Honour of God, the Good of his Country, or the Protestant Cause. The Interest of England in this respect is so intimately connected with that of Ireland, that a very little Attention is sufficient to convince every unprejudiced Observer how effectually those pious and charitable Persons consult the Happiness of their own Kingdom, who assist the Society by their generous Contributions.

The different Circumstances of the two Kingdoms obliged the Society to call for Aid, and indeed to place their chief Dependence upon England;

land ; Nor have they been disappointed in their Hopes : The seasonable Encouragement they have found there, and the warm Endeavours of the Gentlemen of the Corresponding Society in London, have been bless'd with such happy Success, that they were enabled to conquer the Difficulties which attend the Beginning of all great Designs, and to make no small Progress in a Work, which they doubt not, by the continued Goodness of their Well-wishers, to extend throughout the Kingdom, and to convey the Fruits of it to all succeeding Generations.

For the Satisfaction of their Benefactors, they continue to give an Account of their Stewardship, by laying their Proceedings before the World ; acknowledging at the same time the Benefactions they have received in both Kingdoms since the publishing of their last Abstract.

Among these, his Majesty's most bountiful Grant of One Thousand Pounds on the 25th Day of March, 1739, and One Thousand Pounds to be continued yearly, for carrying on the Designs of the Charter, require to be mentioned with the utmost Gratitude.

Nor can they, upon this Occasion, omit to acknowledge the Goodness of his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, our Lord Lieutenant, through whose favourable favourable Representation that Royal Grant was obtained, and who has been himself a liberal Contributor.

It will evidently appear from the small Balance in the Society's Hands at their last Audit, that this Royal Bounty was so seasonable, as to be necessary to the very Being of the Society, whose Views and Proceedings must have dropt, and come to a final Period without it. But this great Encouragement has given them new Life to proceed with Spirit and Chearfulness, though their annual Expences still greatly exceed their Income, hoping that Divine Providence, which hath been so visible in the Progress of this excellent Design, will still favour their Undertaking, and furnish them with Means to carry it on.

However, it is not without some Reluctance that they find themselves obliged to take notice, that though they have received several liberal Contributions from particular Persons, within this Kingdom, yet they cannot say they have been as general as might be wished.

But when Gentlemen shall consider, that the only Aim of the Society is to promote the Protestant Religion and Interest, and to train up the rising Generation in a Habit of Virtue, Labour and Industry, with a View more especially to Husbandry, and and the Linnen Manufacture, it cannot be doubted, but their Concurrence will be equal to the Society's Hopes and Expectations ; since meer Prudence must instruct every Protestant, who has a Stake in his Country, to encourage a Scheme that bids fair to secure his Person and Property against a common Enemy, and for laying the Foundation of publick Peace and Prosperity, which will naturally improve his own private Fortune in the End.

The Society cannot without Concern take notice, that many fair Proposals appear in the yearly Abstracts, without being carried into Execution : And although they have thankfully accepted these Proposals, yet they are grieved at their being so long held in suspense. No Time would be lost in erecting Schools in all those Places, if their Fund was sufficient to answer the Demands. As it is not, they must do the best they can, and still continue with Patience to give their Time and Labour, to promote what they humbly conceive is of the last Consequence to the Happiness of this Kingdom.

A CONTINUATION of the PROCEEDINGS
 OF THE
Incorporated SOCIETY, &c.

No. I. CASTLE DERMOT, County Kildare.

THERE being here no School-house, but what is rented, the Right Honourable the Earl of Kildare has given an Acre in Perpetuity near the Town, on which a School-house will be built, and accommodated the Society with 19 Acres more at an easy Rent. Here are 20 Children, who have contributed to the Cloathing of themselves in both Linnen and Woollen by their own Labour, the Society having furnished Materials. They have also sent up to the Society Twenty Yards of Linnen, which was sold for Forty Shillings for their Use.

No. II. MINOLA, County Mayo.

THE happy Effect of the Children's Education in this School, has appeared by a remarkable Instance of a Girl, aged about Eleven Years, who being seized with a mortal Distemper, desired upon her Death-bed that her Popish Relations should not be admitted to her, lest they should endeavour to draw her back to Popery.

No. III. SHANNON GROVE, County Limerick.

WILLIAM BURY, Esq; has granted to this School Ten additional Acres Rent-free, and contributed Sixty Pounds to the Enlargement, in which are now placed Forty Children. And the School, by the extraordinary Care and Favour of that Gentleman, is under so good a Regulation, as to be of very little Expence to the Society in proportion to others.

No. IV. BALLYNAHINCH, County Down.

SEVERAL Popish Children have lately been apprenticed from hence to Protestant Masters; and some transplanted from this to other Schools, that they might be less under the Influence of their Popish Relations.

the Proceedings, &c. II

No. V. CASTLE CAULFIELD, County Tyrone.

THERE has been a good Produce from the Land, which has help'd to lessen the Expence. Several Popish Children have been transplanted to this School from other Counties.

No. VI. BALLYCASTLE, County Antrim.

HERE are Five Children added to the former Twenty, Two of which have been sent from Dublin. Two Linnen Looms are employed by the Master for the Use of the School. Here was a Spinning-Match between Two of the Girls, who spun each, a Dozen of tolerable Yarn, though the one of them did not know three Months before, what a Flax-wheel was.

No. VII. CREGANE, County Armagh.

HERE are Four Linnen Looms going. The Children received into this School are chiefly brought from other Counties.

No. VIII. STRADBALLY, Queen's County.

THIS School is quite finished, and capable of receiving 120 Children. Pool Cofey, Esq, who charged the Society with no more than 200 l.

having expended upon the Building near 550*l*. The Master is gone down, and Bedding, Cloathing, &c. for 40 Children. The School was opened the 17th of March last. The annual Subscriptions in the Neighbourhood for Support of this School, are now raised to above an Hundred Pouuds, which has been owing to the great Encouragement and successful Application of Mr. Cosby, and it is to be hoped the Example will excite a generous Emulation in the Gentlemen of other Counties.

No. IX. ROUNDWOOD, County Wicklow.

SOME Ground for Rye has been prepared here by the Boys, and a good Crop produced; they have likewise cut their own Turf for firing. As much Woollen and Linnen have been spun by the Boys and Girls, as will make their own Cloathing. The Expence of this School has already been greatly lessened, which is chiefly owing to the Activity and good Management of the Reverend Mr. Stephens, Minister of the Parish, and to the prudent Regulations of the Local Committee.

The following is an Extract from the last Report, which will shew the flourishing State of this School, and how useful and absolutely necessary to the Success of the Society Local Committees are, and the vigilant Endeavours of the Gentlemen who form them.

"The

" The Children, ten Boys and ten Girls, appear" ed before us well cloathed, and very clean and de-
" cent. We cannot without great Satisfaction re" flect on the healthy and vigorous State of all the " Children in this School, especially when compared " with that of others of the same Rank in the " whole side of the Country: For above a Year and " a half past, the Country has not been free from
" a Fever, which scarce any of the poorer sort have " escaped, but in all that Time not one of the " Children has been affected by that, or any other
" Disorder, so as to be disabled two whole Days.
" This happy Effect we attribute (under God) to
" the Goodness and Regularity of their Diet,
" Cloathing, and the universal Cleanliness of the " Children and the House; which is not meerly oc" casional when we meet, for several Members of " this Committee frequently drop in unawares, and
" find it constantly in the same Condition; and the " Frequency of such Visits proves a very useful
" Check to the whole Family.

" The School-mistress laid before us Yarn of " about two Dozen and a half to the Pound, suffi" cient for 120 Yards of Linnen, spun by the Girls
" since the 20th Day of October last, of the Flax
" sent down by the Linnen Board.

No. X. BALLINROBE, County Mayo.

THIS School, which is strong and well finished, and capable of containing 32 Children, was opened with 20 Children the Beginning of March last.

No. XI. KILLOGH, County Down.

THIS School was opened Michaelmas, 1738, with 20 Children. This being a Sea-port Town, the Boys have been employed in the Evenings in making Fishing Nets with such Success, that there has been allowed towards their Subsistence by that Article 3 l. 4 s. 9 d.

No. XII. KILTORMER, County Galway.

THE School contains 20 Children, all of Popish Parents, who have already spun a good Quantity of Linnen for their own Use, and are well instructed in the Church Catechism.

No. XIII. DUNDALK, County Lowth.

THE School was opened December the 30th, 1739. An additional Building has been since compleated, and 20 Children admitted. The Girls have the Proceedings, &c. 15

have made good Progress in spinning for the Cambrick Manufacture.

No. XIV. KILMALLOCK, County Limerick.

THE School was opened the 29th of March, 1738. Twenty Children admitted, and employed in the Linnen Manufacture,

No. XV. KILFINANE, County Limerick.

THE School was opened April, 1739, and 20 Children admitted.

No. XVI. NEWTOWN CORRY, County Monaghan.

THE Revd. Mr. Jobn Corry has, according to his Proposal, given one Acre of Land in Perpetuity, and finished the School at his own Expence, which cost 200 l. and is capable of receiving 32 Children. He has let fourteen Acres of Land at a Pepper-corn for the first ten Years, and after that at the easy Rent of 3 l. 10 s. per Ann.

The School will be opened in May, with 20 Children; Furniture and Cloathing being sent down.

ABSTRACT of Accounts of the Incorporated

THE Society being informed that some Papists in the Country had permitted their Children to go to the Charter Schools, to be instructed in the English Tongue and the Church Catechism.

To promote so good a Disposition, they have desired the Gentlemen of the Local Committees to admit any Popish Children as Day Scholars; and directed the Masters and Mistresses to instruct them gratis with the other Children.

And for the better Encouragement of such who will permit their Children to attend divine Service on the Lord's Day, and be catechised at Church, they have promised to their Parents a Premium of Two Shillings to pay their Hearth Money; to the Children a Testament and Common-Prayer-Book, when they can read and say the Church Catechism; and to admit them into some Charter School, as Vacancies shall happen.

To render their Education more effectual, and to do some Good among the less bigotted Parents, the Society have lately published a Protestant Catechism, shewing the principal Errors of the Church of Rome, which is now sent down to every School, and dispersing by their Members through the Kingdom.
